

Virtual Thrivability* Program

* Thrivability = the ability to thrive

To be yourself in a world that is constantly trying to make you something else is the greatest accomplishment”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Aim of the program

The best version of you

The world needs the best version of you. Especially now, in these turbulent times, you need full brain power, emotional agility, a clear purpose and a lot of energy. Why? To explore new ways, find new answers to complex problems, adapt to new circumstances and to connect deeply with others. That's why we believe it matters greatly to invest in thriving.

Synchronizing routines

Human energy, performance and happiness isn't magic. It's about synchronizing all routines to create a meaningful, focused and energizing life, instead of a draining one.

Shaping your best day

On your best day you feel you have a say in shaping your life and your relationships, you also feel you've made a difference. Not only are you happier, other people are more attracted to you and you just get more done.

The art of transforming life

In this program you learn the art of transforming your life through tiny decisions and actions. To grow further, you learn to leverage the power of decisions. And, by activating new life-giving routines you increase your thriving. You will sharpen your focus, gain energy, and grow daily. It's all about being the best version you can be.

Virtual setup

We're launching this virtual setup because we hear a lot of people struggling with their energy. And, we believe these times make fertile ground to cultivate fresh routines to increase thriving.

Why run this program?

Embracing fresh habits

We're making it easier for your employees to embrace fresh habits, leading to personal growth and happiness. The results for your organization are higher productivity, smooth collaboration and better retention.

Thrive in life!

The program will help your people reflect and act on thriving routines. Because, people who are thriving at work are more creative, productive, engaged and resilient. And they experience aliveness and are healthier as well.

Coping with social distancing

Thriving people incorporate what they feel and sense into their daily routines. In doing so, they are more adaptable, more communicative and have a greater capacity to assess and act upon external challenges.
